Located in Kanchanaburi, it's 120 km west and about two hours drive from Bangkok. Kanchanaburi is a pleasant town with beautiful scenery, nice people and numerous picturesque Buddhist temples. It is a great place to escape from the hustle and bustle of busy Bangkok life.

The Death Railway stretched for 415 km from Thanbyuzayat in Burma to Nong Pladuk in Bangpong District in Ratchaburi province in Thailand. 304 km of the railway was located in Thailand and the remaining 111 km in Burma.

Every year in the first week of December there is a sound and light show at the bridge commemorating the Allied bombing of the Death Railway in 1945. The railway today only exists as far as Nam Tok at the 130 km point.
